

Ghana CRVS Digitisation Project

CRVS Target Business Process and System Future Context
Assumptions

1. CRVS Target Business Process and System Future Context

CRVS Vital Event	Assumptions	Brief description
Future Investment
Birth	Early registration	Concentrated on on-time registration.
Birth Death	Health records	High quality and coverage of health records (e.g. eTracker).
National Identification Authority (NIA)
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	Personal Identification Number (PIN)	PIN implemented.
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	Data sharing	NIA shares ID details for validation with respective civil registration entity during registration.
Birth	PIN vs. BDR number	PIN generated and used instead of BDR identification number.
Ghana Statistical Service (GSS)
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	Data storing and sharing	Only government agency allowed to store and share vital statistics across agencies.
Ghana Health Service (GHS)
Birth Death	Interoperability within GHS system	Health interoperability architecture within GHS system.
Birth Death	Birth and death registration data	Birth and death registration data can be found within health records.
Birth Death	Community health worker applications	Widespread active community health worker applications collect sufficient information for birth and death registration.
Birth and Death Registry (BDR)
Birth Death	Awareness	Most families know the importance of birth and death registration
Birth Death	Access	Easily accessible to all.
Birth Death	Human resources	Sufficient Registrars on salary.
Death	Burial sites	All burial sites are controlled and monitored.
Birth Death	Informant	Informant's signature is not required for Form A and B.
Birth Death	Printing	Security paper available for birth registration purposes.
Birth Death	Authority to fill out Form A and B	Filling out Form A and B can be allocated to other individuals than BDR Registrars and Registrars Assistants (volunteers).
Birth	Legal identity	Birth certificates are the sole source of legal identity from birth.
Registrars Generals Department (RGD)
Marriage	Printing	Security paper available for marriage registration purposes.
Marriage	Awareness	Citizens know the importance of marriage registration.
Marriage	Accessibility	RGD offices accessible across all regions.

Marriage	Mohameddian marriages	Marriage law reflects Islamic culture.
Judiciary Services
Divorce	Divorce for ordinance marriage only	All types of marriages can be registered.
Divorce	Printing	Security paper available for divorce registration purposes.
Legal Framework
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	Data sharing	Legal frameworks are in place such that routine electronic sharing of data is allowed across ministries without a formal request process.
Infrastructure
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	Internet connectivity	Reliable internet connectivity at healthcare facilities.
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	Technology literacy	Technology literacy at community and district level.
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	English language skills	English skills at community and district level.
Birth Death Marriage Divorce	Mobile Infrastructure	90% mobile network coverage.